

Rev. Stephen E. Lehmann

4546 Peeples Rd.
Oak Ridge, NC 27310
Cell: (317) 910-7474
stevelehmann63@gmail.com

PERSONAL

Date of Birth: March 9, 1963
Place of Birth: Lawrenceburg, Indiana

OBJECTIVE

To serve as a professor at an institution of higher learning in the Piedmont Triad.

AWARDS/ CERTIFICATIONS

9 Years of Service as Area Director
Chi Alpha Campus Ministries
January 2015

CISM Certified
Critical Incident Stress Management Seminar
March 2007

EDUCATION

Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, KY
M.A. in Humanities
May 1989
Areas of Concentration: Church History
Paper: History of University Student and Revival Movements

North Central Bible College, Minneapolis, MN
B.S. in Pastoral Studies
May 1985

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL
Online Adjunct Professor
Fall 2016 to present

Classes:

"Christ, Culture, and University" -prepares students for academic and social success by focusing on critical thinking, personal and spiritual formation, and social responsibility.

- Administered all grades.

"Historical Roots of Pentecostalism" -examines the development of Pentecostalism, with particularly attention to the North American context.

- Administered all grades.

"Principles of Ethics"-an examination of moral and social conduct and decision making in light of biblical and theological teaching. Contemporary ethical issues are addressed (abortion, euthanasia, human rights, etc.)

- Administered all grades.

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL
Adjunct Professor/Missionary in Residence

May 9-13, 2016

“Survey of Christian Theology”-survey of the main Christian doctrines and their relevance today.

- Developed syllabus and overall course structure, and administered all grades; a semesters worth of material taught in a week.

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL
Adjunct Professor/Missionary in Residence

January-April 2016

Classes:

“Survey of Christian Theology” -survey of the main Christian doctrines and their relevance today.

- Developed syllabus and overall course structure, and administered all grades.

“Survey of World Religions” -an introduction to the historical development, major teachings, and current practices of selected world religions.

- Developed syllabus and overall course structure, and administered all grades.

“Christ, Culture, and University” -prepares students for academic and social success by focusing on critical thinking, personal and spiritual formation, and social responsibility.

- Partially developed syllabus, and administered all grades.

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL
Adjunct Professor/Missionary in Residence

August 2015—December 2015

Classes:

“Survey of Christian Theology” -survey of the main Christian doctrines and their relevance today.

- Developed syllabus and overall course structure, and administered all grades.

“Worldviews and Mission Strategy” -an investigation of humanity and various worldviews from a missionary perspective.

- Developed syllabus and overall course structure, and administered all grades.

“Christ, Culture, and University” -prepares students for academic and social success by focusing on critical thinking, personal and spiritual formation, and social responsibility.

- Partially developed syllabus, and administered all grades.

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL

Seminar Guest Speaker

“Developing Funding for Nonprofit Personnel and Organizations”

February 2007-February 2015

- Taught annual seminar on non-profit fundraising.

Trinity Bible College, Ellendale, ND

Guest Lecturer

January 2015, January 2013, October 2012

Chi Alpha SALT Conference, Knoxville, TN

Seminar Guest Speaker

December 30, 2015

“Recruiting, Managing, and Leading your Staff Team”

- Taught non-profits from a pioneering perspective.

Great Lakes Forward Staff Conference, North Webster, IN (Epworth Forest Conference Center)

Seminar Speaker

May 2014

“Recruiting, Managing and Leading your Team”

- Taught non-profit teams, management and leadership skills.

National Campus Ministers Conference, San Diego, CA

Seminar Speaker

March 2013

- Creating and managing non-profit budgets.

Central Bible College, Springfield, MO

Guest Lecturer

October 2012, April 2011, October 2010

Great Lakes Forward Staff Conference, Crestwood, KY

Seminar Speaker

February 2010

- Strategic Partnership between Non-Profit organizations.

Chi Alpha SALT Conference, Indianapolis, MN

Keynote Speaker

January 2009

Chi Alpha SALT Conferences, Indianapolis, Indiana
Seminar Speaker

December 1989-2005

Various Organizational Topics:

- Financial Management
- Interpersonal Relationships
- Volunteer Team Management/Training

Great Lakes Forward Staff Conference, Plainfield, IN Seminar Speaker

February 2007

- Compiling and administrating a budget for a non-profit organization.

Support Raising Conferences, Various Locations-Midwest Area
Seminar Speaker

November 2007-February 2015

- Twice a year; Taught strategies on how to successfully raise personal and work budgets for non-profit workers.

Regional Community University of Chapeco, Santa Catarina, Brazil
Guest Lecturer

April 1997

“American History and World Relations”

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Southeastern University, Lakeland, FL

January 2016—March 2016

Online Teaching Best Practices

- Learning best practices for personalizing online classes, resolving conflicts, integrating faith, using multimedia tools, facilitating online discussion, and developing student’s creativity.

Dialogue on Teaching

- Dialogue on effective teaching practices, the long-term development of a teaching career, and the joys and challenges of working with today’s students.

Faith Integration Seminar

- Sustained reflection and dialogue on the relationship between Christian spirituality and academic theory and practice.

Carlinville, Illinois

March 2007

Critical Incident Stress Management Conference
Seminar/Certification

WORK EXPERIENCE

Great Lakes Area Director Chi Alpha Campus Ministries

January 2006- February 2015

Non-Profit Organizations, Great Lakes Area

January 2006-2015

- Facilitated the planting of non-profit chapters in 6 states; Kentucky, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan

Non-Profit Management, Great Lakes Area

January 2006- February 2015

- Managed 501c3 (a non-profit organization), "Great Lakes Chi Alpha Campus Ministries" that grew to 175 workers in 6 states and 74 college and university campus locations.
- Special focus on recruiting, assessment, placement and ongoing professional training and development for staff.
- Conducted annual staff and student conferences at various locations in the Great Lakes area.

Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, KY Graduate Assistant to Dr. Alan Anderson, Dept. Chair

January 1988—May 1989